

Autumn Writing Journal

Describe a day spent in a pumpkin patch. What do you see, smell, and hear? Write about the adventure you have there and the most interesting pumpkin you find.

Imagine that each time a leaf falls from a tree, it tells a story about its journey through the seasons. Write a short story from the perspective of a leaf that has just fallen to the ground.

Write about a fictional harvest festival in a small town. Describe the sights, sounds, and tastes of the event. What activities are happening, and how do the townspeople celebrate the season?

The temperature has dropped, and you can feel the first real chill of autumn in the air. Write a descriptive paragraph about how the change in weather affects your day and your mood.
