

International Women's Day Discussion Cards

Why should we celebrate women in our lives and around the world?

How do women make a difference in the world?

Are men and women treated in the same way today?

In what ways are men and women treated differently?

Are girls and boys treated in the same way today?

In what ways are girls and boys treated differently?

Are women's lives different in different countries?

How were women treated 50 years ago?

Why do we need to have a day to celebrate women?

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

People should be able to do any job that they are good at.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

Girls are better than boys at maths.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

Girls and boys can be great at dancing.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

Women make the best nurses.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

Men and women can be in the army.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, share your ideas as a class.

Computing is a subject for girls

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, work with your whole class to discuss your thoughts and opinions.

Boys are better than girls at art.

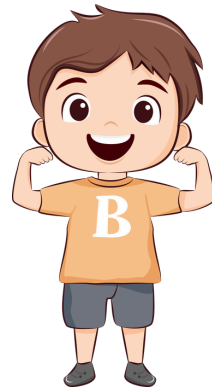

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, work with your whole class to discuss your thoughts and opinions.

Girls can run faster than boys.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, work with your whole class to discuss your thoughts and opinions.

Boys are better leaders than girls.

Discuss the following statement. When you have finished, work with your whole class to discuss your thoughts and opinions.

There are some jobs that are best suited for men and some that are best suited for women.

